

I listen daily to K-Love over 104.3 in the Cincinnati, Oh area. K-Love provides family programming that is safe and uplifting for the entire community. It provides information about free local activities that benefit the community. It is critical for me that this station continue to broadcast as it currently does.